Birmingham International Airport

Situated on the A45, off junction 6 (M42). The Airport is a 15 minute drive, see locator map below.

How to find us

From the M42
 Leave the M42 at junction take the A34 (A3400) Stratford Road towards Birmingham. Continue for approximately 4 – 5 miles. After leaving the large roundabout (Robin Hood Island), continue for ¼ mile. Turn right onto the A4040 Fox Hollies for ½ mile. Turn left into York Road. Continue along York Road, over the railway bridge and Aero Engine Controls is immediately on the left.

Alternative route
 From the M42 Junction 6 follow the A45 Coventry Road towards Birmingham. Continue for 6 – 7 miles, leave the A45 via the slip road onto the A4040, bearing left towards Acocks Green. Turn left at the A41 Warwick Road and then immediately turn right onto A4040 Fox Hollies Road. Continue for 1 mile. York Road is on the right of the A4040.

From the City Centre
 Heading south from the City Centre on the A41, follow the signs for Hall Green (A34) for approximately 6 miles. As you enter Hall Green, you approach a fork in the road (at the College Arms public house), turn left onto Shaftmoor Lane towards Acocks Green. Turn right at the roundabout onto Cateswell Road and turn left into York Road. Aero Engine Controls is immediately on the right.
